Room [International House] and Visa

Visa
- Opened in 2008, the on-campus housing (International House) provides foreign students and their families with the optimal living environment to further their academic goals. The IH offers four types of rooms: single, twin, two-bed, and three-bed rooms. Each room is equipped with a refrigerator, a TV set, a computer, a shower, a washbasin, a toilet, and a large room where you can use internet with Lan cable. This is a 7-story dormitory and has a laundry room in the basement floors.

All program participants may be housed in a two-bed or three-bedroom room in International House upon their request. This modern dormitory is located in the heart of our campus overlooking the palace and lake. Each room is completely furnished with beds, mattresses, desks, chairs, study lamps, wardrobes, telephone, internet connection, air conditioning. There are laundry facilities (Sewon and Namgye dormitory). Students may cook their meals in the kitchen or eat in the cafeteria located in KU House or other restaurants near the dormitory.

The fees for rooms may be about 25,000 won (US$22.40) per night per each person.

Stipend
- All participants may get KRW 1,000,000 (approximately US$900) as a stipend upon arrival in Korea.
